WHIG NOMINATIONS.

For Vice President, WILLIAM A. GRAHAM. OF NORTH CAROLINA.

Grand Rally OF THE PROPER FOR SCOTT AND GRAHAM. The Whigs of Milwaukee, and all true friends of Scorr and Granam and the interests of the West, are invited to meet at MARKET HALL, on Saturday Evening, July 3d, to respond to their nominations to the first and second offices in the COME ONE! COME ALL!

THE BATIFICATION MEETING TO-NIGHT. No words of ours are needed to call out the people to high to respond to the nominations of Scorr and Ganam, the candidates of the Whig party for President and Vice President. The friends of the Patriot-Soldier will be there to testify their joy that an opportunity, is to be given them to bestow, through the ballot box, a just rewand for a long life devoted to his country, and to vindicate him from the attacks of his enemies The enthusiasm with which the name of Wix-FIELD Scorr is greeted is by no means confined to the party with which he has been long connected, but there are thousands on thousands belonging to other parties, with whom that name has long been a bousehold word; and we shall see hosts of such at the meeting to-night.

It is a long time since the old Whigs of Milwaukee have not together in Council, so let us have a good old fashimied gathering to night, and grasp each others hands, and pledge ourselves one with another, for Union and Victory.

THE MANDACUS CASES.

By the decision of the Supreme Court, as given in our descatch, and is we find it in the Madison droug and Democrat, it will be seen that the re Covering to sign the scrip issued under the law of 1801, and the negotiate the scrip sufficient under the law of hist way. The court decides that it has no jurisdiction ! the matter, and of course denies the motious lo nandamus.

Further, the Court express the opinion that the Governor is not required to authenticate the scrip and uportioned, (that of 1851) but they see n valid legal objection to the issue of the certificate provided for in the law of 1852.

If we understand the force of the decision, the it means that the Supremo Court caunot competitio Governor, relative to the matters at issue, in any way, and that he cannot be required to sign the scrip of 1851 at all. We did not suppose that this point was contouled for, inasmuc as, to the best of our recollection, the second law ree intended to cover all continuencies. We may

The Court we infer, is of opinion that the Wis comen River Improvement Law does not so far interfere with, or supersede; the law of April 14th, der the latter. If so, the responsibility of a refu sal to issue them is thrown entirely upon Gov Farwell. We have that degree of confidence in bin, which assures as that in whatever course he takes, he will act conscientiously, and as he be-Whether he will deem it to be his duty, under the circumstances, to withhold his action longer, remains to be seen. We are frank enough to say, that if the decision of the Court is in all, respects as we understand it to be, there is but little use in Gov. Farwell's subjecting himself to the bostile feelings which are rife against him in the North, owing to local interests, when the Legislature, which passed the law, is to blame for its wrong

FORCEMES.—The Watertown Register places itself on the inglorious list of Democratic papers which insist upon circulating the forcery of Mr. Greely's name to a supposed letter abusing Gen. Scott.—Sentiael. The Morning News is upon the same "inglorious list"—Morning News.

The News, as we expected, is still upon that inglorious list, and we suppose will continue to be there, whatever proofs are brought to show it in the wrong. It promises, however, when it has satisfactory oridence, to publish it. We propose to make the experiment.
The Register charged Mr. Green with writing a letter in 1848, in which certain depreciating language was used towards Gen. Scott, a part of which was to the effect that that officer was " rain and conceited coxcomb, whose brains lay it rain and concented coxcount, whose oranic my in-his epaulettes." Greely at once pronounced the charge a forgery, and said that he had never writ-ten such stuff. The Register referred, for proof of its assertion, to a Mr. Cobb, of Cayuga Co. Mr. Cobb, thus appealed to, writes as follows:

Court Room, AUDDEN, June 10th, 1852.

J. C. Derrey, Esq.,—Dear Friend:—Some time in the suntiner of 1848, at the request of soveral aident friends of Mr. Clay, in this place, I addressed a letter to Mr. Greely, soliciting his opinion as to the prospect of Mr. Clay's nomination.—In a paragraph in that letter, I suggested, in case of the failure to nominate Mr. Clay, the nomination of Gen. Scott for President, and Mr. Seward for Vice President. The answer of Mr. Greely to my letter, (not being confidential) was shown to the individuals for whom, in common with myself, the information was obtained. As that letter is not, to my knowledge, in existence, I cannot wate the precise language of Mr. Greely, but am confident he said muthing about "securing a delegate," or that "Gen. Scott's brains lay in his epaulettee." He did, however, speak of Corwin, McLean, and Seward, and used some of the words in a modified form, quoted in the Statu Register, but whether he spoke of Seward as President or Vice President, I do not recollect.

Be assured, no one can more deeply regot than I do the use sought to be made of any thing that letter may have contained at the present time, when harmony and united effort should be the watchword of every true Whig.

Very truly yours.

From time to time he has been intrusted by the government with the performance of other deties than those properly belonging to a military officer—duties of the most important and delicate nature, which could only be successfully performed by the exercise of great discretion and ability. In 1832, when the Union was threatened by South Carolian, and civil war was imminent, he was selected by President Jackson as confidential agent of the government to proceed to the scene of excitement, for the purpose of adopting such measures as he might think necessary to sustain the law, and preserve the peace of the country.—Gen. Cass was then Secretary of War, and in his official order to Gen. Scott, he says:

"He (President Jackson) has full confidence in your judgment and distertion, and it is his wish that you repair immediately to Charloston, and examine overy thing connected with the fortifications. You are at liberty to take such measures, either by strengtheining those defences, or teinforcing the garrisons with troops, drawn from any other posts, as you may think prudence and a just precaution require."

"No one," says Mr. Leigh, "who had no opportunity of observing on the spot the excitement that existed, can have an adequate conception of the delicacy of this trust. Gen. Scott had a large acquaintance with the people of Charleston—he was their friend: but his situation was such that many, the great imajority of them, looked upon him as a public enemy.

was their friend: but his situation was such that many, the great 'majority of them, looked upon him as a public enemy.

He was resolved, if possible, to prevent a rosort to arms, and nothing could have been more judicious than his conduct. From the beginning to the end, his conduct was as cencilatory as it was firm and sincere, convincing that he know his duty, and was resolved to perform it, and yet that his principal object and purpose was reach. He was perfectly successful, when the least improdence might have resulted in a serious collision." Gen Juckson knew his man when he selected Gen. Scott for this important service. The trouble on the Niagara frontier in 1837, which threatened so seriously the peace of the country, was another occasion on which the eminent abilities and prudence of Gen. Scott were invoked by the Government. Everybody remembers the intense excitement which then existed along our northern border. The alternative of peace or war was in his own heads. President Van Buren, having the same confidence in his discretion as was entertained by General Jackson, invested him with the most ample authority to take whatever steps he might think necessary to preserve the laws and the honor of the country. His conduct on that trying occasion elicited the universal applause of the American people. On his return from the border, the citizens of Albeny, and the numbers of the Legislature of New York, invited him to a public supper. Governor Marcy, a prominent candidate for the Democratic Presidential nomination, presided, or took a prominent part in doing honor to the illustrious guest. The following were among the regular tonests:

"Winfield Scott—Not less the scholar than the soldier, whose pen and sword have been wielded with equal skill in the defence of his country."

"The Soldier—Who has ever made the law of the land his supreme rule of action and who, while he has always inliftlud its utmost requirements.

"The Suldier—Who has ever made the law of the land his supreme rule of action, and who, while he has always inliftled its utmost requirements, has never, in a single instance, transcended its lim-its."

Supposed Fragments of the ill-fated Seconship President.—The Bauffshira (Scotch) Journal, gives the following descriptions of fabers of the wreck of a large vessel supposed to be the President washed ashore on the coast of Sectian. The wreck seems to "have formed a part of a large stem vessel, and from its appearance it has been a long time in the water. The piece got on shore is about 25 feet square, and contains 17 timbers. These timbers measure at the floor-heads 13 inches by 12 mehos. There are three pieces of large hanging into knees, two of which are 7 feet in length, the other five feet; and two tron beds supposed to be for the boilers, each bed 18 feet long, the knees at the thickest part being four inches by two inches. On one of the boils the initials "L. W." are stamped. The floor-heads are boiled with iron holts, and the batt code with

Baltimore, June 22.

We wish that every voter in the Union could have been present at the closing scenes of the Whig National Convention, to have heard and felt the hearty and enduariastic response given by delegates from the thirty-one States to the nonmantion of Scott and Gridham. The protractal easients and bullottings scened to have prepared aesients and bullottings scened to have prepared aesients and bullottings scened to have prepared all for the grand result, and on Monday, when the vote of ten. Scott rose steadily, ballot upon ballot, to 145, the intensity of feeling among the delegates and the multimake of outsiders, can be imagined but not described. The decisive moment-had come, when the stentonian voice of Secretary Upton called for the vote of Maine on the 53d ballot, and Mr. Evans responded for the 53d time—"The State of Maine casts eight votes for General Wanfield Scott."—a loud huzza went up: but it was instantly hushed in expectation for the response of N. Hampshire, whose vote had been divided nearly every ballot, Mr. Webster receiving a strong majority, and in some instances the entire vote of the Grantie State.

The silence was soon broken, for the amonuncement—"New Hampshire caste five votes for Winfield Scott?"—was accorded with deafeaing shouts Rhole Island had all inrough the context divided her vote between Fillmore, Webster, and Seest, most of the time giving the comparer of Mexico but a single bailot. On the 53d, the announcement—"Ithede Island casts one vote for Daniel Webster, and the votes for Winfield Scott"—was greeted with protracted huzzas. Connecticut shoot unchanged, so New York and New Jersey, Pennsylvania for the second time cast: "27 votes for Gen. Winfield Scott." and the unity of the Keystone was halled with loud acclamation by the friends of the conquering Hero. Delaware voted for the 53d time a unit for Scott, and Maryland again cast 8 votes for Millard Fillmore. Cheer upon cheer followed, the lobbies shouting with unwonted vehemence that Maryland so gallantly sustained her favorite to the last.

When Virginia was called, there was some delay in answering, but when the chairman of her delegation announced—"Virginia casts 6 votes for Millard Fillmore, and 8 votes for Winfield Scott"—still wilder and louder hurrals rang through the great Hall of the Convention. The votes of the States were now nuchanged, until Tennessee was reached in the roll, and her vote of "9 for Fillmore," 3 for Scott," again awakened the liveliest enthusiasm. The change of the vote of Wisconsin from "1 for Fillmore, 2 for Webster, and 2 for Scott" on the 53d was hailed with loud applause by the friends of Webster in the Convention and galleries. The London Times says :- When the Colt has crossed the Adiantic, he begins for the first time in his life to consume the manufactures of this consum, and indirectly to contribute to its extens. We may possibly live to see the day when the chief produce of Ireland will be cattle, and English and Scotch the majority of her population. The nine or ten millions of Tish, who by that time have settled in the United States, cannot be less friendly to England, and will certainly be much better customers to her than they now are. There was a time when Ireland had manufactures of her own. There were prosperous linear makers once in Ulater, and silk weavers in Leinster, the cotton mills were thriving at Belthat and Portland, and the woellen ones at Kilkemy. Mountmeliek and Abbeyleiz. But that was when there was an Irish Parliament in College Green to protect them. When England repealed the Union, Ireland became a dependent province. English law-givers could see no reason why Frotection should be extended to Irish manufactures. Pree Trade would build up English Factories, though it would ruin Irish case, so Free Trade was decreed, and the min followed. It was burone link in the long chain of tryanny and oppression by which Ireland was broken down, stated, and depopulated.

Well, Ireland has spent all her substance in sion by which irefand was broken down, statted, and depopulated.

Well, Ireland has spent all her substance it enriching her English oppnessors, and now she has grown too poor to be of any further use to them. But they do not give it up yet. When the Irishman scrapes together what he can find and cones to America, in search of work to keep him from starving, they pursue him still to profit by his cardings. The Tories of England and their ergan, the London Times, follow him with exultation and bestow such advice upon him as this:—

"Go nerosa the Atlantic, Patrick, and labor for this:—
"Ge series the Atlantic, Patrick, and labor for the good of Old England and the ruin of Yeare? America. Never mind freland—we'll take rate of her. We'll fill up your place with Englishmed and Scotchmen and eartic, Patrick, and continuation of them with one hand, while we stead from your with the other. Ge over to America and earn indo. I am spend it for English goods. Referent protect American labor, just as we redused to project American labor, just as we redused to project yours. Note for the purry that bears down American manufactures. Don't have anything to do with the Whies, for they don't helicee in Fred Trade. But go the whole "Democratic" ticket and throw up your had for Fleeve and King and the Queen and the London Time. Then you will have the satisfaction of knowing that you helped, as far as you could, to make the country of your birth. COMMING AND ADDRESS OF THE COMMING ADDRESS OF

DAILY SENTINEL. By Last Night's Mail.

Parland R. June 29.

A mass meeting of that portion of the Demacracy of this State, who are opposed to the resolution of Gov. Hubbard, and the manner in which he was re-monimated for that office by the Legislature, instead of a people's convention, assembled at the City Hall this morning.

The Hall was filled to repletion, holding from c60 to 1000 persons.

Hou. V. D. Parris, Ex. M. C., called the meeting in order and explained its object.

of to 1000 persons.

How. V. D. Parris, Ex. M. O., called the meeting is order and explained its object.

He said that he regretted the necessity of the proceed necesting, but as for himself he foresmy in the beginning of the last Legislative session an inevitable tendency to this result. What seemed a majority of the party, were bent upon his nomination, but circumstances which it was not necessary now to detail, had made that movement unwise and inexpedient.

Meetings at that time were held all over the State, warning members of the Legislature against this suicidal step, but no somer was this tidings received, than members clubbed togethor and mominated Gov. Hubbard for re-election. This was done by a bare majority, and was a proceeding which every right minded man condemned.

The Steamship Europa sails for Liverpool to morrow, taking out a large number of passengers, and about $400,000 in specie.

Washington, June 29.

Sceretary Graham, in accepting the nomination for Vice President, immediately sent President Fillmoore his resignation as Sceretary of the Navy He will however remain in the Cabinet a few days to complete some important business, and then course for the party of the complete some important business, and then course of the President of the President Fillmoore his resignation of the Pittsburgh Free Sol to complete some important pussess, and according to the nomination of the Pittsburgh Free Soil Convention will be offered to the Hon. Jon. P. Hale, and should he refuse it, will be tendered to Hon. Some correspondence is said to have taken place between the Executive committees, and Hon. Robert Rantoul of Mass., relative to the candidates, but the latter gentleman is said to be still in doubt as to what course to pursue.

Classius M. Cley will undoubtedly be the candidate for the Vice Presidency.

Baltimore, June 30.

At 10 o'clock this morning an immense town morning convened at the request of the Mayor, to take action in respect to the memory of him. Henry Ciav. A committee reported resolutions requesting the citizens on the day of the arrival to close their places of business, and hang their places are recognized.

Louisville, June 58.

Louisville, June 68.

The Whig ratification meeting held here on Saturday night, was most enthusiastic—surpassing the catopaign of 1840. Speeches were made by the Hon. Sherrod Williams, Hon. Thomas F. Marehall, Mr. Upton of La, and suveral others. Wushington, June 30.

SENATT.—Prayers were offered by Rev. Mr. Butler, in which he feelingly alluded to the demose of Henry Chy. Mr. Underwood gave a brief biography. He said, on Sunday morning last Mr. Chay said to him, there may be some question where my remains shall be put. Some persons may designate Frankfort, ky. I wish to represe in the Cemetery in Lexington, where many of my friends and connexions are buried.

Mr. U. offerned the customary resolutions, and case for the appointment of a committee of six to superimend the funeral which is to take place at 12 of clock to-morrow. Also that Sciators wear the usual ladge of mourning for one month; and that the remains be removed in pursuance to his request in charge of the Sergeant at Arms, and the committee of six Senators to Lexington. Resolutions adopted.

Mr. Cass followed in an elequent tribute to the seasory of the deceased, which was uttered in more account. wish much emotion.

Mr. Hunter addressed the Senate in a simila

Scott's Nomination In Georgia. Baltimore, June 29.

The Southern mail is through from Mobile.
The Savannah Georgian (Democrat) states its belief that a great majority of the Whigs of Georgia will go with Messrs. Dawson and Grantland for Gen. Scott; and that if Messrs. Cobb. Toombs and Stephens of the Union party, form a third ticket, and thus divide the Democratic vote, the State will. go for Scatt.

The Whig Ward meetings held last night wore largely attended, and measures were taken for the organization of a Scott Club.
